

Roxann E. Henry

RECOGNITIONS: NONE OF THESE ARE ENDORSEMENTS OR TESTIMONIALS

Ms. Henry ranks in Chambers and has been recognized repeatedly by Global Competition Review, Who's Who of Business Lawyers (Leading Competition Lawyer and Thought Leader), the National Law Journal (M&A Antitrust Trailblazer Awards), Legal 500, and Best Lawyers in America (including Washington D.C.'s Top 50 Women Lawyers). The membership of the Antitrust Section of the American Bar Association elected her Chair of the Section, and she has been selected to co-chair its International Cartel Workshop, and to serve as the Section's International Officer, Program Officer, co-chair of the Spring Meeting, co-chair of the Cartel Task Force, and council member. The Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission have invited Ms. Henry to serve as a Non-Governmental Advisor to the International Competition Network (ICN), an organization of more than 100 competition agencies from around the world addressing antitrust enforcement and policy issues, and the Canadian Competition Bureau invited her to speak at the ICN's cartel workshop. Both U.S. agencies have also invited her to speak at policy Roundtables. Selected recognitions are noted below:

- Chambers USA 2020, Antitrust Litigation Specialists, Leading Individual:
 - “Roxann Henry is well known for her longstanding experience in the sector. She is particularly adept in cartel investigations and follow-on litigation as well as merger litigation and antitrust damages cases.”
- Chambers Global 2018, Antitrust Cartel, Leading Individual Band 1:
 - “Sources report: ‘She is just a great lawyer who is very experienced, provides fabulous judgment and is a tireless worker for her clients.’”
- Global Competition Review survey, The Washington DC Antitrust Bar:
 - “Rivals are quick to heap praise on Roxann Henry”
- Legal 500:
 - “unequaled and extensively experienced”.
- International Who's Who Legal, Competition Lawyers, 2017:
 - “WWL says: ‘The best there is at what she does’; she is universally respected by the US bar.”
