

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

- “Criminal Scierer Requirements in Prosecutions by the Antitrust Division,” American Bar Association 2024 International Cartel Workshop Course Materials (June 2024).
- “Antitrust Criminal Prosecutions Are Unconstitutional,” CPI Antitrust Chronicles (February 2023).
- “Per Se Antitrust Offenses in Criminal Cases,” 2021 Colum. Bus. L. Rev. 114
- “Criminal Cartel Prosecutions: Considerations on Attempts to Compensate Victims,” Liber Amicorum in honor of Judge Douglas Ginsburg, Concurrence (2020)
- “Cartels: What Every Antitrust Lawyer Should Know,” American Bar Association Antitrust Section Masters Course IX CLE Materials (October 2018)
- “Protecting Investments in People and IP While Avoiding Criminal Sanctions,” Employment Law Commentary, Volume 30, Issue 7 (July 2018)
- “Public Relations: An Integral Part of Defending Allegations of Price Fixing,” 2018 International Cartel Workshop CLE Materials (February 2018)
- “Cartel Investigation Targets Beware: International Travel Restrictions With or Without a Plea,” American Bar Association Antitrust Section Masters Course VIII CLE Materials (September 2016)
- “Primer on Per Se Treatment Under U.S. Antitrust Law,” 64th Antitrust Law Spring Meeting CLE Materials (April 2016)
- “Corporate Competition Law Compliance Programs,” 2016 International Cartel Workshop CLE Materials (February 2016)
- “Rejection of the Antitrust Division’s Position on the Statute of Limitations,” 2015 International Cartel Workshop CLE Materials (June 2015)
- “Antitrust Issues in the Global Marketplace,” International White Collar Enforcement (2012 Edition) • “Criminal Antitrust Enforcement in the U.S.,” Practical Law Company (January 2012)

- “Twombly Has It Right: The Proper Balance of Public and Private Enforcement,” 2010 International Cartel Workshop CLE Materials (February 2010)
- “Striking the Right Balance: A Case Study of United States Antitrust Law,” Union Internationale des Avocats Annual Meeting Materials (October 2009)
- “Rethinking the Trend to Ever-Increasing Jail Terms for Criminal Antitrust Violations,” 57th Antitrust Law Spring Meeting CLE Materials (March 2009)